A beautiful woman alone on her birthday. A man bent on revenge. A old betrayal.

Being the girlfriend of the superhero Beacon was surprisingly dull. He was always off saving the day while Dora was having dinner alone, again. Things get steamy when the satyr-like villain Pan takes her hostage. He intends to make the curvy woman his in every way.

How far is Pan willing to go to seek justice for an old betrayal? And why does Dora crave his touch so desperately?
